

The Wisconsin Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology Association announces Dr. Stephanie Long, an Audiologist at Fox Valley Hearing Center, Appleton, as the 2019 Wisconsin recipient for the Louis DiCarlo Clinical Achievement Award Winner. The award recognizes professionals who have worked toward advancing knowledge in clinical practice through a significant accomplishment in audiology and/or speech-language pathology. Long is being recognized for establishing Hear in the Fox Cities, a non-profit with a mission to assist lower income families in the Fox Cities with obtaining hearing aids for children. The organization works with local hearing care professionals and families to ensure children in the community have access to hearing aids. The funds raised provide hearing aids to youth and children in the Fox Cities who do not qualify for other funding sources.
