

PdC native named managing editor at Mount Mary University magazine

Julia Wachuta, daughter of Jerry Wachuta, of Prairie du Chien, was recently appointed managing editor of "Arches Magazine," the official student publication of Mount Mary University of Milwaukee. "Arches Magazine" has won numerous state, regional and national awards, most notably first place for general excellence and Best of Show at the Wisconsin Newspaper Association Collegiate Better Newspaper Contest and First Place from the Associated Collegiate Press Best of Midwest awards.

Julia is a junior at Mount Mary, majoring in English with a concentration in writing for news media. She has been writing for Arches since her freshman year and editing since her sophomore year.

Julia also contributes to the university's general marketing publications.

Mount Mary is the successor university component of Saint Mary's Academy of Prairie du Chien, the university having split from the high school and moved to Milwaukee in 1929. The high school in Prairie du Chien closed at the end of the school year in 1968.
