

Nov
06

2018

Page
A03Clip
resized
102%

Reporter joins Daily News staff

WEST BEND — Brianna Stubler's first day with the Daily News was Monday.

Stubler will cover the West Bend School District, as well as the Kewaskum School District, village of Kewaskum, local business and courts.

"We're very excited to have Brianna join our staff here at the Daily News," managing editor Nicholas Dettmann said. "Her experience and talent will be a great asset for the Daily News and the Washington County community."

Stubler, a Wisconsin native, graduated from the

Stubler

University of Missouri's School of Journalism in 2017. She triple majored in international journalism with a print and digital news emphasis as well as political science and classical studies.

Among her career stops was the Columbia Missourian and interned with WITI-TV (Fox6) in Milwaukee, where she worked alongside Katrina Cravy and the "Contact 6" segment, WHDH-TV in Boston.

Stubler's phone number is 262-306-5046 and her email address is bstubler@conley.net.com.